

Floyd County
Georgia
Proclamation

WHEREAS, on Saturday, March 15, 2008 a tornado touched down in the Wax Community of Floyd County; and

WHEREAS, the Rome-Floyd Critical Incident Stress Management Team (CISM) responded to the damaged area immediately; and

WHEREAS, the CISM team counseled with the members of the family who were victims of a fatality, and went door to door to ensure that the immediate needs of all those affected were met; and

WHEREAS, in the days and weeks following the tornado, the CISM team assisted in the recovery effort by offering counseling to the first responders; and

WHEREAS, the CISM team is a critical part of the emergency response plans, and we are very fortunate to have their assistance during tragic situations.

NOW THEREFORE, the Floyd County Board of Commissioners is very pleased to recognize and honor the Rome-Floyd Critical Incident Stress Management Team (CISM) for their commitment and dedication to assisting the citizens of Floyd County.

This thirteenth day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand Eight.
