

Proclamation

WHEREAS, hundreds of dedicated and selfless police officers, firefighters and emergency management personnel provide vital and lifesaving services to the citizens of this community; and

WHEREAS, we would like to recognize the partnership between the Floyd County Police Department, Rome City Police Department, Sheriff Department, the Rome/Floyd County Fire Department and Emergency Management which continues to add value to not only our community but to our state and nation; and

WHEREAS, the work of these "unseen first responders" is invaluable in emergency situations, and each of these dedicated men and women deserves our heartfelt appreciation; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Rome and Floyd County place their trust in these individuals, not just this day, but every day of the year; and

WHEREAS, today is a time for a grateful community to show their appreciation and to recognize that our health, safety, and well-being are often dependent on the commitment and steadfast devotion of public safety personnel; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors for the Community Criminal Justice Foundation, Inc. and the Fellowship of Christian Peace Officers of Rome and Floyd County decided to pool their resources and honor these individuals with a ceremony.

NOW THEREFORE, the Rome City Commission and the Floyd County Board of Commissioners would like to recognize May 2, 2008 as throughout our community and to further encourage all citizens to pay tribute to the contributions these men and women of these distinguished organizations have made to this community.
