

Knowledge. Inspired.

At Floyd we know the concern a woman feels when it's time for her annual mammogram. We know the concern she has when she is waiting for the results.

We know a better way.

That's why we've designed a place that will inspire confidence, a soothing and comfortable place where compassionate and knowledgeable professionals provide expert guidance and care, a place where you know today what to expect tomorrow. From prevention and diagnostics to treatment and beyond, The Breast Center is a place of knowledge: ours and yours. The Breast Center at Floyd.

Come to know the difference.
