

DOOR PRIZES

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

John Massey of Massey's The Diamond Store, is donating our Grand Prize this year, a stunning 14K white diamond slide necklace with rope chain valued at $1005.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Buffey's Tanning Salon is donating two $25 gift certificates. Back row, left to right: Sabrina Gordon, Susan Autry, Stephanie Keith and Misty Mize. Middle row: Melinda Johnson, Cyndy Ferguson. Front row: Jennifer Massey

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Randi Hunter (left) and Brandi Reyes of Room Service are donating a gift basket valued at $90.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Rita Patel of Traditions of Rome is donating a University of Alabama tailgate bucket valued at $60.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Joan Mannis, owner of Governor's House Banquet Hall and Gardens in Kingston, is donating a gift certificate for a holiday luncheon for four.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Marsha Blevins, owner of Ford's Furniture is donating a pub set with four stools, valued at $299.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Keith Clark, owner of West Rome IGA, is donating two gift certificates valued at $25 each.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Spence Millican of Piggly Wiggly is donating 10 bags of non-perishable groceries.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Carrie Williams of Blonde on Broad is donating two $25 gift certificates.

Rome News-Tribune staff photo

Linda Parker, owner of Linda's Accessories in Adairsville, is donating a gift certificate valued at $50.