

Northwest Georgia Bridal Showcase offers Rome couples a variety of wedding options in one place

The Northwest Georgia Bridal Showcase brings together dozens of exhibitors and vendors in the wedding industry from Rome and surrounding areas.

It's a place where Rome brides and grooms can peruse the many products and services available to assist them in planning their special day.

Presented by Scott Productions, the showcase takes place on Sunday, Jan. 27 at The Forum in downtown Rome.

Doors open at 1 p.m. and admission is free. The Bridal Showcase brings together a show of experienced and professional wedding services throughout the Northwest Georgia area including Calhoun, Cartersville, Cedartown, Rome, and Summerville.

Engaged couples may choose to work with one or several professionals and benefit from the relationships among members who have worked together time and time again.

Sample tasty food from caterers and cake services. Select the perfect photographer and/or videographer to capture your precious memories.

Shop breathtaking locations for weddings and receptions whether it be in the city, the country, or the mountains.

Experience pampered treatment from one of the area's most sought after DJ services. Speak with travel agents to discuss your cruise or extravagant honeymoon destination.

Enjoy the fashion presentation by local formal shops showcasing the latest trends in bridal & formal wear.

Win fabulous door prizes! Bring your fiancé, family, and wedding party for a day of planning, excitement, and lots of fun.

Visit online at www.romeweddings.com to preregister online or for additional information.

Holiday tradition

One in four grooms propose to their brides over the holiday season. November and December account for 26 percent of marriage proposals, according to a survey of brides sponsored by the publisher of Modern Bride. The American Academy of Wedding Professionals concurs, saying that more people get engaged in December than any other month.
